

The Chicago Eagle

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY

Subscription Price, $2.00 PER YEAR

CHICAGO EAGLE
104 THURSDAY BUILDING,
VANDERBILT PLAZA 1912.CHICAGO EAGLE
104 THURSDAY BUILDING,
VANDERBILT PLAZA 1912.CHICAGO EAGLE
104 THURSDAY BUILDING,
VANDERBILT PLAZA 1912.

Established October 3, 1889.

By Henry F. Donovan.

The Chicago Eagle numbers among its subscribers the most influential, most prosperous and most respected men in Chicago.

It reaches nearly every man of standing in the community and all men who are molders of public opinion or directors of public affairs.

It is the guide, mentor and friend of every political leader of every shade of opinion.

It is read by Government, State, County and City officials.

It is read by a big percentage of the legal fraternity, including bench and bar.

It is the favorite of Chicago's leading business men.

It reaches all classes in their homes.

It is read by the Fire Department.

It is read by the Police Department.

It is in every public office and every public library.

It is not controlled by any cheap, cheap or crooked advertising agency. In the twenty-one years of its existence it has managed to build up a large circulation and great business without the aid of professional advertising agents.

That is why it is so independent, so popular and so strong.

The Chicago Eagle is one paper that has never depended upon advertising agents for a circulation. It has one of its own.

FOR PRESIDENT, 1912.

John A. Dix of New York.

THE BREWERS' CONGRESS.

The Brewers' Congress which has been in session at the Coliseum for a week has been a great success.

Much misinformation has been spread during the past years about beer in this country, and persistent attempts have been made to disgrace the manufacture and use of it.

It will be shown that the study of beer engages many of the most eminent scientific men of the world and is recognized by the normal persons as a legitimate, honorable and respectable occupation, and the proper use of beer as a satisfaction of a fundamental requirement of human nature.

The practically unanimous verdict of science is in that sense.

Brewing is an important agricultural industry. It is a consumer of a notable portion of the products of the farm. In most civilized countries the governments and agricultural colleges devote considerable work to the control and improvement of barley and hops, rice and corn, as brewing materials.

EAGLETS.

Daniel L. Cruce should be elected Judge of the Superior Court by a big plurality. A better man was never named for the bench and he should receive the votes of all good citizens. See that he gets your vote.

John P. McGorty proved his worth to the people as a member of the legislature and he would serve them equally as well as judge of the Circuit court.

Judge Marcus Kavanagh has won by his grand record on the bench the confidence and admiration of all classes of people. His re-election is a foregone conclusion.

John J. Coburn's election as judge of the Superior court will place on that bench one of the ablest, fairest and most courageous men ever on it.

The special commission which will revise and modify the building laws of Illinois, as provided for in an act of the last General Assembly, was named by Governor Deneen as follows: Architects, Professor N. C. Ricker, Urbana; Richard E. Schmidt, Chicago; Structural engineers, W. C. Armstrong, Chicago & Northwestern Railway, Chicago; Professor I. O. Baker, Urbana. Fire protection expert, W. H. Merrill, Lake Forest.

D. E. SULLIVAN.

Able and Popular Lawyer, Nominated by the Democrats for Judge of the Superior Court.

Building contractor, George J. Jobst, Peoria. Lay member, William S. Stahl, Chicago.

One of the best judges in Cook county is Judge Joseph H. Fitch. He will be re-elected.

One of the ablest, best known and best qualified candidates for Superior Court Judge is Charles M. Foell, Republican nominee. Mr. Foell, who as everybody knows is a member of the city council from the Twenty-first ward, has proven by his public record and his lawyers' record that he is fitted in every way for a seat on the bench. He would make a fair and honest judge. Alderman Foell was born in Dubuque County, Iowa, in 1870, and was educated in the country and public schools of Iowa. He was graduated from Cornell College, Mt. Vernon, Iowa, in 1894, and from Northwestern University Law school in 1896. He commenced to practice law immediately after graduating, opening offices in the Atwood Building, now the Straus, and has been there ever since. Alderman Foell is associated in his law practice with Marvin E. Barnhart. He was elected to the City Council in 1906 and was re-elected in 1908 and 1910. His record there has been a grand one and he is today one of the leaders of that body. He has served on all the committees of importance, being chairman of the Finance Committee during the council year of 1910 and 1911. He is still a member of that committee and also of the Local Transportation Committee. He was appointed by Mayor Busse as a member of the Chicago Harbor Commission and has been one of the most active members of it. He helped pass at the last session of the Legislature the harbor bill enabling legislation under which the city is now proceeding. In nominating Mr. Foell for Judge of the Superior Court the Republicans did themselves credit and the voters of Cook County will never regret electing him.

Hugo Pam is one of Chicago's ablest and best known attorneys, and his nomination by the Republicans for Judge of the Superior court deserves to be rewarded by an election on November 7.

Thomas Taylor, Jr., is one of the best qualified men ever named for a seat on the bench in Cook county, and his candidacy for Circuit court judge is a deservedly popular one.

Denis E. Sullivan has a record to his credit as a lawyer and a public official that he can well be proud of. His candidacy for Superior court judge deserves the votes of all good citizens.

Andrew J. Redmond, Republican nominee for Superior court judge, has earned by his long and honorable career as a lawyer a seat on the bench.

Ross C. Hall is qualified in every way for a seat on the bench and his election as judge of the Superior court on November 7 will be a worthy one.

Albert J. Hopkins enjoys and will continue to do so, the highest esteem of the people of Illinois. His honest, fearless and brilliant record is known to all.

Charles M. Foell has proven by his record in the City Council that he is worthy to sit on the Superior Court bench.

The Citizens' Association issued its annual report on Tuesday and also held its annual meeting.

President Peter Bartz of the County Board was commended for his reform of the county payroll, which now carries the addresses of all employees of the county, thus preventing payroll padding. Sheriff Michael Zimmer was mentioned for his able reform of dieting prisoners in the county jail.

Corporation Counsel William H. Sexton was commended for his organization of a Special Track Elevation Bureau, which settles track elevation cases out of court that cost the city $700,000 during the last administration.

The Board of Election Commissioners and County Judge John E. Owens were also the recipients of applause for their revision of the election machinery of Cook county.

During the meeting the following officers were elected: President, George E. Cole; vice president, Bernard A. Eckhart, secretary, Shelby M. Singleton, and treasurer, John C. Black. Mr. Cole was formerly president of the association, having served in that capacity for two years, 1901 and 1902.

The presidents and boards of directors of the elevated railroads were sent notices Monday afternoon by L. E. McGann, commissioner of public works, telling them in what way their method of handling currents was corroding city water mains by electrolysis and demanding corrections.

The notices were sent after a report had been made to Mr. McGann by Ray Palmer, an engineer employed to investigate electrolysis in Chicago.

Each letter gives the part of the city where the electrical currents of each company are destroying the city's water mains and other pipes.

The Democratic finance committee, which will collect funds to run the judicial campaign, was named on Sunday. It consists of sixty-three members. Henry Stuckart, city treasurer, is chairman. The committee held its first meeting on Monday at the headquarters in the Hotel La Salle. At this meeting the committee was divided into sub-committees and the collection of campaign funds has started.

Judge Edward Osgood Brown is a man of whom Chicago is proud to claim as one of her leading citizens.

Judge John R. Caverly is one of the ablest, hardest working and most painstaking men on the Municipal court bench. More men like him are needed there.

There is not an abler, better fitted or more conscientious man on the bench in Cook county than Judge Kichham Scanlan.

William Schumacher, Chicago manager for Rudolph Oelsner, is to be congratulated upon the great success his business is meeting with everyday.

No man in Chicago stands higher in the estimation of the people than Andrew J. Ryan, the well known lawyer and former city attorney.

As one of Chicago's leading financial and business men, Albert G. Wheeler can always be found taking an active part in every movement that has for its motive the betterment of the city.

James S. Hopkins, the well known attorney and master-in-chancery, would serve the people well in any office within their gift.

William Ritchie has earned by his long and brilliant record as a lawyer the highest esteem of the people of Cook county.

Owners of the buildings used as polling places in the November judicial election will be paid for the use of the rooms as soon as the election is over. This was determined at a conference between Comptroller John E. Traeger and Chief Clerk William H. Stuart of the Board of Election Commissioners.

The death of Mrs. John M. Smyth, widow of the late John M. Smyth, caused general sorrow throughout Chicago. The deceased lady was a resident of Chicago for over sixty years and was renowned for her many good qualities of mind and heart.

Most of the members of the county board were present on Tuesday at the digging of the first shovel of dirt for the first caisson under the new county hospital building on the old hospital grounds, South Wood and West Harrison streets. Others present were the county architect, Paul Gerhardt, and representatives of the contractors.

The new building will accommodate 1,200 patients and will cost $2,500,000. It will contain six ward wings and an administration section. Overcrowded conditions at the institution for several years caused the last previous board of commissioners to put to a vote of the people a proposal to construct a new hospital and

HUGO PAM.

Well-Known Lawyer Nominated by the Republicans for Judge of the Superior Court.

A $3,000,000 bond issue was authorized. Part of this money will be used in constructing branch emergency hospitals in other parts of the city.

Denis E. Sullivan, Democratic nominee for Judge of the Superior Court, is well known to the people of Chicago as a lawyer, a public official and a citizen. His record is a clean and brilliant one, and his election will place on the bench an honest and fearless judge. Mr. Sullivan was born in Kewanee, Ill., in 1869 and was educated in the public schools. He studied law in the law department of Lake Forest University and was admitted to the bar in 1894. His law practice has been a success from the start. He practiced alone until 1901, then started the firm of McDannold, Sullivan & Jarrett, and later to Sullivan & Jarrett. Mr. Sullivan was elected to the Illinois Legislature in 1896 and was re-elected in 1898 and in 1900. His record at Springfield was an honest, able and fearless one. The people never had a more faithful representative.

He fought every dishonest measure with all his force and energy and fought equally as well for every good measure. His record in the Legislature alone is plenty reason why he should be placed on the Superior Court bench. Mayor Harrison appointed Mr. Sullivan in 1897 an assistant corporation counsel, and in 1899 Corporation Counsel Charles M. Walker placed him at the head of the special assessment law department. His record for the city was in line with his legislative record. Mr. Sullivan was married in 1900, his wife being a niece of the late John G. Carlisle, Secretary of the Treasury under President Cleveland. Mr. Sullivan resides with his family at 6009 Winthrop avenue. It is able, forceful and energetic men like Mr. Sullivan that the people need on the bench. He has proven his worth to the people in the important offices he has served in, and his election as Judge of the Superior Court on November 7 will be a credit to Cook County.

Hugo Pam, Republican candidate for judge of the Superior court, was born in Chicago, Jan. 20, 1870 and has lived here ever since. His parents, Alexander Pam and Cecile (Oesterreicher) Pam, came from Bohemia, Austria. Mr. Pam was educated in the public schools, graduating from the Walsh school, receiving the Foster medal and from the West Division high school in 1889. Mr. Pam graduated from the University of Michigan with the degree of Ph. D. in 1892. He began the study of law in the fall of 1892; took the bar examination in 1893, and was admitted at the next term of the Supreme court of our state. Mr. Pam was first connected with the firm of Moses, Pam & Kennedy, then successively was a member of the firm of Pam, Donnelly & Glennon, Pam, Calhoun & Glennon and my present firm, Pam, Hurd & Day, the other members being Mr. Max Pam, Mr. Harry B. Hurd and Mr. Stephen A. Day, the offices being in the Rookery building. He has confined himself to the practice of law exclusively since 1892, and it has been a success from the start. He is a member of the Standard club, the Ravisloe Country club, the Illinois Athletic club, member of the Chicago Bar association and Illinois State Bar association. Mr. Pam was one of the founders of the Maxwell Street Settlement, which was one of the first college settlements in the city of Chicago, being located in the congested district near Hull House. He is a lecturer on history, civics and social topics of the day for the English Educational club of the Chicago Hebrew Institute. Mr. Pam resides at the Metropole hotel.

He is qualified in every way for a seat on the bench and the voters of Cook county will never regret electing him.

The voter will have his choice of twenty candidates for Superior Court Judge, ten of whom he can vote for. Many will be confused at the position of two of their favorite candidates being side by side on the ballot, and will think that they are running against each other. For example, at the top of the ballot will appear on the Republican ticket Marcus Kavanagh and on the Democratic John J. Coburn. Both men led their respective primary tickets and both should be elected by big pluralities. Friends of Judge Kavanagh are going to vote for Coburn and friends of Coburn are going to vote for Judge Kavanagh.

It's the same way with other candidates on the ballot, and the voter should remember that he can vote for any ten, no matter on what ticket their names appear or their positions.

Andrew J. Redmond, Republican nominee for Superior court judge, was born in Philadelphia in 1864 and came to Illinois in 1871. Completing studies in the public school he entered "Wells' School for Teachers" at Oregon, and completed the teacher's course and then entered the "Northern Illinois Normal School" where he completed the commercial course. He taught school in Ogle county and studied law at Northwestern university, graduating in 1891, university degree. He was admitted to practice same year and has practiced law in Chicago ever since. Mr. Redmond married Miss Emma Robertson, daughter of John Robertson, president of the Bank of Barrington, 1895. He was appointed attorney for Cicero in 1899 and served as its attorney two terms.

He was appointed attorney for Barrington in 1891 and served seven consecutive years. Mr. Redmond was attorney for Forest Park for three years, Wauconda for three years, River Grove for two years, and Lake Zurich for two years. He was special counsel for a number of villages. Revised ordinances for several municipalities. Has handled vast number of important cases. Wrote many opinions, ordinances and contracts. All court work handled without assistance. Experience in practice large and uniformly successful. Has taken active interest in public affairs. Never held elective office. Has been connected with various boards of education. Member of Chicago Bar Association, Chicago Association of Commerce, Chicago Athletic Association and other social clubs. Has been associated with E. S. Cummings, Rufus S. Simmons, Frank J. R. Mitchell and S. C. Irving. Mr. Redmond lives in Oak Park. A better man could not be placed upon the bench.

STATE POLITICS.

(Continued from page 3.)

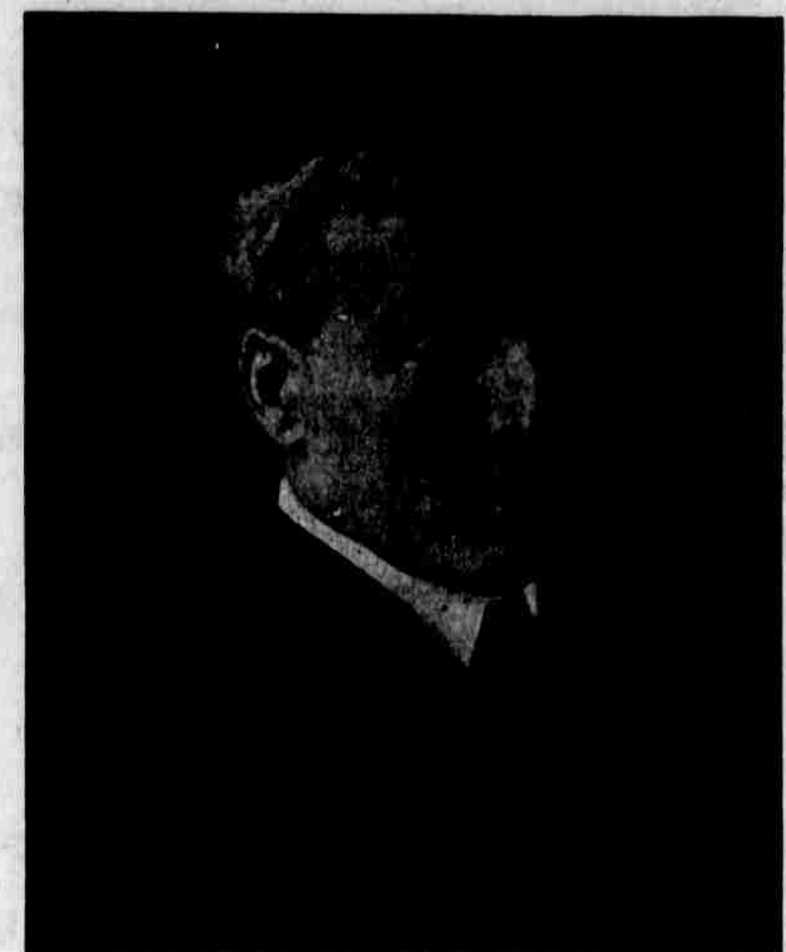

land av.Dem.
H. J. Bauler, 1807 Cleveland av.Dem.
William F. Shaw, 1044 George st.Pro.
Leo J. Jeannette, 238 Huron st.Pro.
Fred H. Kral, 11 W Erie st.Soc.
10-George W. Paulin, EvanstonSoc.
T. J. Kelsey, 3314 N. Marshall field av.Rep.
John B. Forgers, 1549 Sheridan rd.Rep.
C. A. Williams, 3516 Janssen av.Dem.
W. H. Ehemann, 3042 Southport av.Dem.
John Haderlein, 1901 Wellington st.Dem.
Charles R. Jones, Evanston.....Pro.
G. R. ShirleyPro.
Richard Oge, 2945 N. Robey st.Soc.
11-Joseph Riehemann, Elgin.....Rep.
Joseph H. Patterson, Maren-goRep.
John A. Logan, ElginDem.
Alonso E. Wilson, Wheaton.....Pro.
Guy Underwood, Aurora.....Soc.
12-Charles E. Hook, Ottawa.....Rep.
James G. Doyle, LaSalle.....Dem.
Fred Leroy (vice Doyle) SreatorDem.
Frank K. Hook, Grand RidgePro.
13-James R. Crowley, Freeport.....Rep.
Delos W. Baxter, Rochelle.....Rep.
W. Scott Cowen, Shannon.....Rep.
William Hogan, LaSalle.....Dem.
F. D. Lehman, Franklin GrovePro.
Leroy Lattig, Freeport.....Soc.
14-W. A. Rosenfield, Rock IslandRep.
John W. Williams, CarthageDem.
Louis F. Gumbart, Macomb.....Pro.
Joseph T. Krone, Moline.....Soc.
15-Jerry C. Ellis, QuincyRep.
C. H. Williamson, QuincyRep.
H. N. Wheeler, QuincyDem.
A. D. Metcalf, OneidaPro.
James W. Counery, KewaneeSoc.
16-Garrett DeP. Kinney, Peoria, Rep.
Joseph A. Weil, Peoria.....Dem.
L. J. Kendall, Le MoinePro.
Fred Herbert, LaddSoc.
17-Frank L. Smith, Dwight.....Rep.
William R. Bach, BloomingtonRep.
Martin A. Brennan, BloomingtonDem.

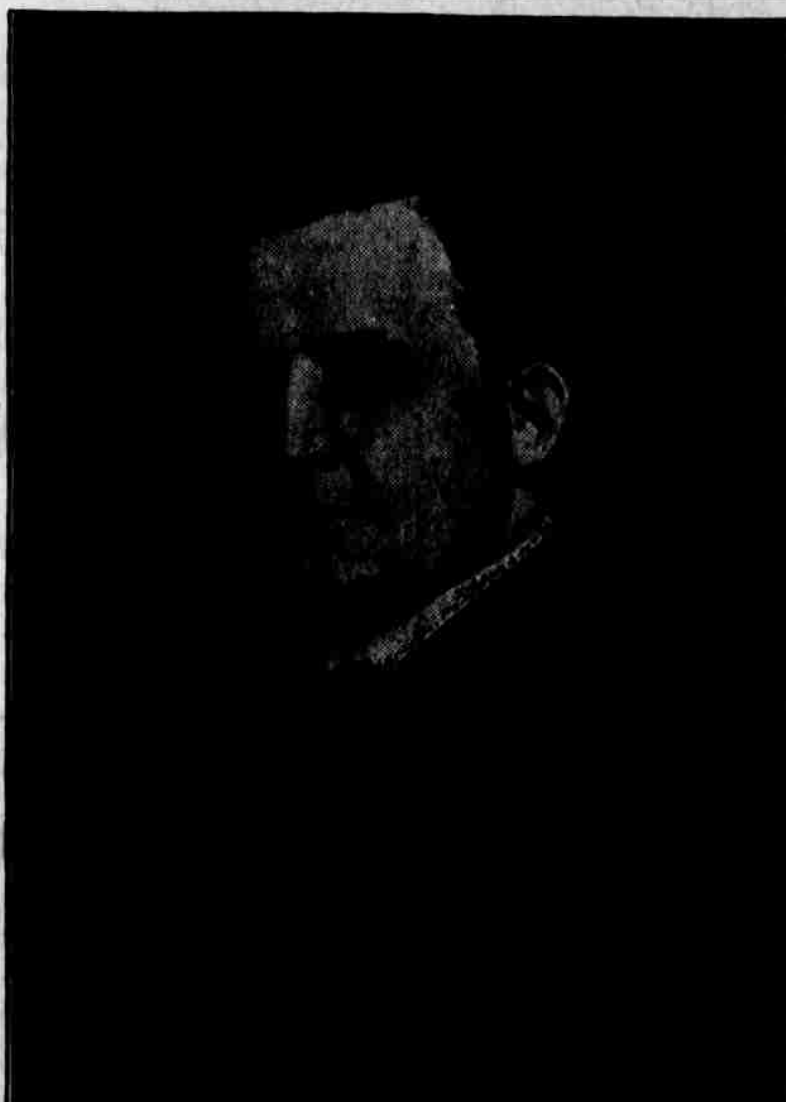

ROSS C. HALL.

Popular Lawyer, Nominated by the Democrats for Superior Court Judge.

Marion Gallup, PontiacPro.
F. L. Gaston, NormalPro.
18-Charles P. Hitch, Paris.....Rep.
Harry Moss, ParisDem.
George W. Woolsey, DanvillePro.
James M. Tate, Danville.....Rep.
William V. Welsh, ParisDem.
Charles Slevens, Kankakee.....Soc.
19-Charles G. Eckhart, TuscolaRep.
Isaac B. Sraig, MattoonDem.
Anna Sloan, Walker, DecaturPro.
fieldPro.
John R. Golden, Springfield, Pro.
John Manwaring, ThayerSoc.
22-Harry A. Marsh, Upper AltonRep.
W. C. Hadley, CollinsvilleRep.
J. B. Gore, Upper AltonRep.
John W. Ford, Jr., Vandalia.....Rep.
C. Boeschstein, EdwardsvilleRep.
Eldon Grant Burritt, GreenvillePro.
Dan L. Thomas, O'Fallon.....Soc.
23-Louis L. Emmerson, Mt.

THOMAS TAYLOR, JR.
Republican Candidate for Judge of the Circuit Court.

T. B. Shoaff, Shelbyville.....Dem.
Albert M. Caldwell, ChampaignPro.
20-John R. Robertson, JacksonvilleRep.
E. E. Nicholson, BeardstownRep.
James McNabb, Carrollton.....Dem.
John E. Verrees, Pittsfield.....Pro.
John Everett, Mason City.....Pro.
21-John A. Wheeler, AuburnRep.
Ernest Hoover, Taylorville.....Dem.
C. J. Lumpkin, Carlinville.....Dem.
Robert H. Patton, SpringfieldRep.
VernonRep.
Rene Havill, Mount Carmel, Dem.
John H. Shup, NewtonPro.
24-W. S. Phillips, Ridgway.....Rep.
Arthur W. Charles, Carmi.....Dem.
C. W. Gallenr, Eldorado.....Pro.
W. A. Morgan, Bone GapPro.
Ewell W. Rork, Ledford.....Soc.
25-James A. White, MurphysboroRep.
William S. Cantwell, BentonDem.
Groce Lawrence, MorrisSoc.
Harry A. Du Bois, CobdenPro.

ANDREW J. REDMOND.
Popular Attorney and Republican Candidate for Superior Court Judge.